Coverage Termination

You, as a Subscriber, can cancel the coverage for any reason by giving 10 days written notice to Farm Bureau Health Plans. Your coverage will terminate the following paid-to-date. Please note: once a cancellation is processed, it cannot be revoked. In order to obtain new coverage, medical underwriting for approval and pre-existing condition waiting periods may apply.

If your coverage terminates as a result of your death and there are no dependents covered, coverage ends on the date of death and your estate is entitled to a refund of any unused premiums.

If you are on a monthly bank draft, you have the option to stop payment at your bank, provided you present your bank with the proper account information and exact bank draft amount.

Farm Bureau Health Plans may also cancel this coverage. You will be given 30 days written notice. Such notice will be binding if mailed to you at the address last shown in our records. It is your responsibility to maintain your current address on file with Farm Bureau Health Plans and the Administrator at all times.
